Have You Heard?

Dorothy McCain Eلسenius

Would you believe... a local resident, who called the Oakland Post Office regarding an application for an up-coming job opening, was told: "You'd be better coming down to pick it up. We can't guarantee you'll get it. We mail it." Whaaaaaat????

Albany's Nichols family are proudly proud of themselves — the young Bob Nichols was receiving the Lions Club's District Student Speakers Award last Thursday night, mother, Aldene, president of the Albany High School PTA was being awarded Honorary Life Membership at the Albany schools' Foundation Day observance at the Little Theater. Congratulations to both you.

Many old-time PTAers were present at the aforementioned Foundation Day gathering, including Mae Brandt, now residing in Arnold, Calif. Mae and her long-time Albany residents, were very active in the Marin High School PTA, and could always be counted upon to lend a hand, suggestion or other necessary contribution to the many school events that were held while their children attended school here.

Happy retirement to Albany resident Thurman (Ted) Daniels, who was recently honored at a retirement banquet, held at the Alameda in the Pacific Marina of Alameda. Ted, who is retiring after 27 years with the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., worked at Substation C, at 1st and Grove Streets in Oakland.

We hear that AHS Spanish instructor, Mike Mirabella, is a very fine guitarist. We will be able to judge the rumors when he conducts the Spanish march "Amarito Roca" at the April 6 AHS Band Show. He will also be heard playing the banjo parts of the pit for the upcoming high school production of "The Boy Friend."

We seem to be falling behind our birthday and anniversary celebrations. Sorry to have missed Pete Davis' observance of his 73rd birthday last Saturday. Pete, a long-time Albany resident, will be best remembered as a member of the lifetime industrial league baseball teams, and a darned good

THIS FLAG, being so proudly displayed by members of the Soroptimist Club of Albany, and Albany Chamber of Commerce manager, Hal Denham, is now flying from the Albany flagpole on the Buchanan overpass, near Freeway 80. The Club donated the 12'x18' nylon flag to the Chamber in answer to a recent plea for flags, which because of the wind and rain in the area, have very short lives. Holding the flag with Hal Denham are: (l to r) Soroptimists Eleanor Saniuk; Club President Bette Rhodes, May Olson, Irene White, Madeline Kitcher, Barbara Nevotti, Toni Stallone, Bernice Boyd, Althea Ippolito, Dorothy Eلسenius, Julian White and Delcie Thompson.

Another Public Hearing For Albany Hill Project

The Albany City Council, at their Monday night meeting, set a public hearing for March 12, to discuss Interstate General Corporation's request for an excavation permit, to remove approximately 50,000 cubic yards of material from the site of their Albany Hill development, on the west side of the Hill, adjacent to Pierce St.

Eugene B. Hill, vice-president of the Corporation, noted that excavation would start immediately after the permit is granted, and the expected completion date would be approximately 30 days thereafter.

Council members approved and adopted three resolutions: to extend the employment of Mrs. Elizabeth Dalrymple for another 30 days; to grant a contract to California Engineering Contractors, Inc., low bidders for the contract to install earthquake restrainers on the Buchanan Street overpass; and to appoint Michael Allen Luoma as maintenance man in the Albany Street Department, effective March 1. Luoma will replace Fernando Camacho, who is returning to school to complete his education.

Other Council action included accepting the recommendation of City Administrative Officer James Turner, that the necessary resolution be drawn to "spread the assessments on Masonic Avenue," for street lighting on Masonic Avenue.

The Councilmen also received an invitation from Joe Zuppo, Little League parade chairman, to take part in their Opening Day Parade, on April 21. Councilman George Hein appeared very interested. "I'll be there," he said, "I like parades!"

Council members also recommended that an alcoholic beverage license be granted to the Sizzler Steak House, by the State Board of Equalization, after receiving a communication from Chief of Police Ralph Jensen, indicating he had no objection.

Federal Ruling May Close Albany Children's Center

The new federal guidelines require that eligible families must be in such desperate circumstances that, without child care, they would have to apply for welfare within the next six months. Furthermore, the effect of these new regulations will be that, once such a family gains economic independence, they will no longer be eligible for child care.

There will be a 30-day waiting period, before the new regulations take effect, during which HEW officials will consider any objections to these new guidelines.

It is hoped, by many at the Children's Center, that state funds may be available to continue the present program. However, word was received from Sacramento last Friday, that state funds for child care centers have already been exhausted for this year, and that no more are available.

Because of revised HEW guidelines, concerning who is eligible for federally supported child care, the Albany Children's Center is located in University Village may close on March 30.

Under the newly adopted federal rules, only 40 of the 180 children now at the Center will continue to be eligible. Since it is economically unfeasible to run a program for such a few children, the Center will have to close, unless new sources of funds are found before that date.

The Albany Children's Center, located at 1140 9th St., has been in operation for over 30 years, serving working and student families in the area. The loss of this service will hit particularly hard at the top 89 single-parent families, as well as students, many of whom may be forced to drop out of school without the low-cost child care provided by the Center.

Parents with children at the Center, have organized a letter writing campaign, and have sent a delegation to Sacramento. It is hoped that others may wish to aid in securing help to keep the Center in operation. Those interested are asked to contact Melinda Martin, at 526-2600.

NOTICE

Today is the last day to make reservations for the testimonial dinner being given for retiring Albany Fire Captain Dick McSheehy. Tickets may be obtained from the Albany Fire Station, 1001 Marin Avenue, or by calling 525-7141.

Free Family Movies Tonight

The popular award-winning film, "The Red Balloon," about a little French boy and his runaway balloon, will be one of the two movies to be seen tonight at the Albany Lizary.

The second film on the program will be "Rosie's Walk." This free family show is open to the public, and will begin at 7 p.m.

For further information, please call the Library, 526-2720.

Difficulties Ahead For Mid-Term Grads

If the Board of Education accepts the recommendation of the Albany High School Graduation Requirements Committee, students in the future may find it more difficult to be a mid-term graduate.

The committee is recommending a raise in the present credit requirements to 220 units be made, while keeping the existing course curriculum.

According to Al Morgan, high school faculty and committee member, students should be in high school for four years. Most of the jobs available to the young people are fine while they are in school, but for the purpose of supporting themselves—that is another thing, Morgan noted.

It was also noted that the mid-term graduates are causing the school to lose approximately $7,000 per year.

While the committee's report has been submitted to the Board of Education, no action has been taken yet.

Council Denys Yard Clock Request, Approves Appointment Resolution

The Albany City Council denied the request of C. F. Kroeger, to install a 15' 655 clock in the front yard of his Marin Avenue residence, at a public hearing Tuesday night, Feb. 20.

All but one communication received by the Council, concerning the clock, had been in opposition. The majority of the communications against the clock were from neighboring residents, while the one for the clock was from a resident of the 900 block of Kains.

In denying the request, Council members feared setting a precedent, which could result in all types of future requests for similar items in front yards.

Other action by the Council included: the opening of bids for Buchanan Street overpass earthquake restrainers. This was the second opening of bids for the project. The first bids, when opened, exceeded the estimate considerably. As a result the plans and specifications were revised, and new bids requested.

Following the opening of the four bids which had been received, the Council referred the bids to the City Engineer and the Director of Public Works for review, with a request for a report to be returned for the February 26 Council meeting.

An application for an alcoholic beverage license for the Sizzler Family Steak House, 665 San Pablo Ave., was referred to the Chief of Police; while an application from Taxi Unlimited for a temporary taxicab permit (for a second 'cab'), was approved subject to the approval of the Chief of Police, Ralph Jensen, and City Attorney Larry Saler.

A request from the American Shuffleboard Sales Co. for a refund of a business license fee, was denied. Also receiving a denial, was the claim from Simmons Shade and Drapery Co. for alleged damages resulting from a sewer stoppage. It was referred to the City Attorney and the City's insurance carrier, following the denial.

Councilman Lewis Howell presented Resolution No. 73-15, "A resolution of the Council of the City of Albany, appointing James Simmons as Chief of Police of Albany, to fill the unexpired term of Ralph M. Jensen," which was unanimously approved by the four Councilmen who were present. On the question, Councilman George Hein noted that Councilman Hubert Call, who was making an appearance before a local club, wished to make the decision unanimous, even though he was absent, and had instructed Councilman Hein to so notify the Council.

Under the "good of the City," Councilman Howell voiced his hopes that, although there had been some adverse publicity regarding the appointment of James Simmons as Chief of Police, he would have the cooperation of all the men of the Department when he took office.

"I know that many times it is difficult to accept a new boss," Howell said, "but I hope by election time they will all get their shoulder behind the wheel."

Albany resident, Roy Alegri, commended the Council on their choice for the new Chief of Police. "You've made a good choice," he commented, "Jim Simmons has a good record as an Albany policeman, and he has been a taxpayer and resident of Albany for many years."

The Mail Bag

Editor, The Times: Since the opening of the Middle School at Albany High this year, the faculty parking lot has been changed into a playground for the children. The Key Route strip in front of the school is now overcrowded with students' and faculty's automobiles. I feel that someday this will cause a serious problem. This could lead to accidents, conflict between faculty and students or even car theft.

Albany High has a field for outdoor activities. I'd like to know why this field is not used by the Middle School and the parking lot left for the faculty.

Sincerely,
MICHAEL GILLIAMS

South Pacific Tour Planned

Students and teachers interested in marine biology, and especially the biology of coral reefs, will be excited about an educational tour of the South Pacific Islands of Fiji, New Caledonia, Tahiti, Hawaii, and the continent of Australia. Combined with the tour will be a unique experience being offered to the teachers (elementary, secondary & college) who are interested in observing Melanesian and Polynesian cultures.

Sponsored by Colleges Overseas, Inc., for 3-5 semester units, the tour is scheduled to leave San Francisco on June 23, via Qantas for Fiji, and will return on July 28 from Hawaii.

Tour leaders will be John and Nancy Holleman, who previously spent a sabbatical year touring and studying the ecology of coral reefs and the diversity of invertebrate organisms in these areas in 1970, when Mr. Holleman was on leave from Merritt College, where he is chairman of the Division of Biological Sciences.

For further information regarding the tour, please contact Mr. Holleman at 837-3473.

Note of Thanks

I would like to thank all the people of Albany who put together the Christmas package. I received while overseas.

I am sorry not to have thanked you sooner, but I did not receive it at Christmas time, as I was on patrol on board the nuclear-powered submarine Teumsah.

Thanks again.

Summer Musical Program Expands

Responding to the enthusiasm of the full-house crowds that attended the 1972 presentations of the Woodminster Summer Musicals, director H. James Schlader has announced a new, expanded series for 1973.

This year, for the first time, performances of each musical scheduled at Woodminster Amphitheatre in Joaquin Miller Park will be given on Thursday evenings, as well as Friday and Saturday.

The gala opening for the 1973 season will be held Thursday, July 12, with Dale Wasserman's "Man of La Mancha" as the attraction. This production will play through July 23.

Second featured attraction, to play August 9 through 25, will be Neil Simon's hilarious "Promises, Promises." An outstanding musical, "The Rothschilds," will be the final production, and will run September 6 through 22.

Again this year, Woodminster will feature "name" singers in the leading roles, to be announced later.

Season tickets are now on sale at the Woodminster box office. Special arrangements for interested groups may be made by calling Russ Saunders at the box office, 531-9597.

Higher Apprentice Age Limits Set

Many thousands of new openings for apprentices, and a chance for older workers to retrain for new skills, may result from a recent legal opinion, according to an announcement made by James E. Straffen, Chief of Apprenticeship Standards in the State Dept. of Industrial Relations.

As a consequence of this legal opinion, by the State Attorney General, interpreting Labor Code section 3077.5, workers through the age of 31 can enter State-approved apprenticeship training. Straffen noted that upper age limits between 24 and 28 years of age, heretofore, were set by most joint labor-management apprenticeship committees.

The State official said: "The ruling should also aid returning Vietnam veterans, who wish to enter an apprenticeship program but who might have been too old under standards in effect before this latest opinion was given."

Fairyland Contest Open To East Bay Children

Favorite storybook characters from children's literature—Little Red Riding Hood, Pinocchio, and Alice-in-Wonderland—will once again come alive in March, during the annual contest to select new members to represent Mother Goose's costumed storybook family in Oakland Children's Fairyland.

Boys and girls, from 8 through 10 years of age, will be eligible to enter the competition for these three coveted roles, according to Fairyland director, Charlotte Rowe.

Registration will be held at 10 a.m., and preliminary screening at 11 a.m., on the first three Saturdays of March, at Rhodes department store in downtown Oakland. Each child may enter only one of the three competitive categories.

Girls wishing to try for the part of Little Red Riding Hood are scheduled for March 3; boys who'd like to be Pinocchio, March 10, and girls who have their sights set on playing Alice-in-Wonderland, March 17.

Semifinals will take place the following week, with finals in all three categories set for Saturday, March 31 at Rhodes. Winners and losers in semifinals and finals will receive prizes from the store and will be presented in special programs at various Rhodes stores.

Winners will be presented to the public in a gala "Winners' Day" program at Fairyland, at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 15. They will also be featured in other colorful events inside and outside Fairyland during the following year.

Fact sheets, containing contest details and required memorization passages, are now available at Fairyland, and at all Rhodes stores in Oakland, Concord, and Palo Alto. They also can be obtained by writing to Office of Parks and Recreation, 1520 Lakeside Dr., Oakland, 94612.

Check Before You Sign Retail Contract

In the latest California law of Justice Information pamphlet "On Guard—A Guide for the Consumer," State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger issues the following warning:

Before signing a retail contract:

1. Read the entire contract carefully.

2. Do not sign the contract if it contains any blanks or if you do not understand the words. If blanks appear in the contract, draw a circle with a line through it in the blank spaces before signing. This avoids filling in spaces by the firm at a later date.

3. Make sure that all promises that were made verbally are also in writing.

4. Make sure that all the terms of the contract are contained in a single document.

5. Be sure to obtain a copy of the contract at the time you sign it. If it is not a copy, have the copy signed by the person who made it out and then acknowledge in writing that it is an exact copy.

You should also keep in mind that certain charges or costs required to be disclosed in a contract—this is the law—include such terms as cash price, insurance, cost of finance charges and annual percentage rates.

Do something racy now

You've nothing to lose and you could win $5,000 on April 21st. $11,000 cash prizes in all.

Chief Issues Notice To Parents Of Bike Riders

Albany Police Chief, Ralph Jensen, is issuing the following information and warning to "parents of bicycle riders." Bicycle riders have the same privileges of the road that automobile drivers have. But cyclists, with a few exceptions, are also subject to the same laws.

The laws most frequently violated by cyclists are: 1) Riding without lights or reflectors. 2) Riding on the wrong side of the street (cyclists must go with the traffic, not against it). 3) Ignoring stop signs or signals. 4) Making sudden turning movements without signaling. 5) Riding more than one person on a bike without proper seats. 6) "Show-off" or unsafe-type riding. 7) Riding on the sidewalk in a business district. (This may be done only in a residential area.)

According to the Chief, these laws were passed to protect the people, and in almost every case of a bicycle accident, one or more of the above laws were violated.

Children who violate these laws can be cited into Juvenile Hall and adults into court. However, because of lack of personnel to vigorously enforce the law, and a hesitancy to get children involved in Juvenile Court, citations are rarely issued.

Parents of Albany bicycle riders are being requested to assume more responsibility for the bicycle safety of their children.

"For instance," Jensen said, "if the bicycle does not have the proper lights or reflectors, do not allow your child to ride it during hours of darkness. This is a very basic way to protect your child from being hurt."

It is also well for parents to discuss bicycle safety with their children, the Police Chief further noted, pointing out to the children the reasons for the laws and how compliance with them may prevent injury or death. Parents should also require strict compliance by their children, as parental supervision, according to Jensen, is a very important aspect to safe bicycle operation.

In conclusion, the Police Chief noted that a demonstration on bicycle safety would be conducted in all Albany schools in the near future.

Latin American Dancing at YMCA

The Berkeley YMCA, 2001 Alston Way, will open two new Latin American dance classes for men and women, Monday, Mar. 5, with Joyce and Leonard Carter as instructors.

Both classes will be held on Monday evenings, for a period of seven weeks. Tango and Fox Trot will be taught from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. The second class, featuring advance steps in Bolero and Western Swing will be held from 9 to 10 p.m. A half-hour of practice dancing for both classes will be held from 8:30 and 9 p.m.

Both singles and couples may enroll in these classes, and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Ruth DeKay, at 848-6800. The YMCA is located opposite the main Post Office in Berkeley.

Have You Heard?

player. Pete can still be seen sporting a baseball cap on his head, and a big cigar in his mouth, visiting with his friends along the Avenue, and discussing the latest news about his favorite team.

Congratulations also, to Louise and Emil Damonte, long-time Albany residents also, who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on Feb. 20.

Louise says the years have been great, and if she had to she would "do it all over again." Emil agrees that the years have been good to both of them, but he doesn't know if he will make it for their 60th.

Many thanks to Dario Meniketti, who so generously offered us the use of the pictures and documents we used to decorate our office window for Abraham Lincoln's and George Washington's birthdays. We enjoy seeing the interest that Solano Avenue pedestrians take in our window displays.

Thanks also to Evelyn Pihl who lent us all the Little League items and pictures now in the window. Those who were on former LL teams, or who had players on them may be interested in seeing the team pictures and other memoirs from past baseball seasons.

Fern Luoma tells us that more than 300 boys have already signed up to play LL baseball this season.

Boys, between the ages of 8 to 18, are eligible to play, and may still sign-up if they have not already done so. Contact player agents Ken Chammes, 526-1603, or Paul Nomura, 525-2321, for further information.

Good news about an Albany girl — Gail Oakley, 1970 AHS grad, and daughter of Albany Fire Captain Tom Oakley and his wife, Betty, has made the Dean's List at Alameda College, where she is majoring in psychology. She had a 3.66 grade point average.

Question: When is a Senior Citizen not a Senior Citizen? Answer: When you are under 65 years of age, but a member of the Albany Senior Citizens. At least as far as BART is concerned!

To be eligible to buy the special Senior Citizen's BART fare tickets you must be 65 years of age or over. But, to belong to the Albany Senior Citizens you only have to be 50. So many of us have to wait for a few years to be a BART Senior Citizen.

On Wednesday, Mar. 7, the subject of the Creative Retirement Class is "Gold, Coin Collecting & Coin Investing," from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Allen D. Crawford, well-known coin collector, will host this program.

After lunch, Leo Vuosalo will have his World Affairs Class from 12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. Both of these programs should be very interesting and informative. You are invited to come in and be convinced of this fact! (Please remember to bring a sandwich. We serve the coffee and tea.)

Mention has been made in previous columns of the forthcoming trip on Tuesday, Mar. 13, by chartered bus to St. Helena. The bus will leave the Center about 10 a.m. and return the same day about 5 p.m. Cost of the trip, including a hot lunch in a new restaurant in St. Helena is only $7.50 per person—a real bargain! The trip will include visits to the Silverado Museum — containing the finest collection of Robert Louis Stevenson memorabilia available—and to the Hurd Beeswax Candle Factory, where "Candlelight and Wine" are both produced.

This trip is so popular that the first bus load is completely sold

THE VETERAN'S CORNER
by Chas. Lindh

Before closing out this series of articles it may be well to bring to your attention a couple of committees that are rarely mentioned, probably because they are, so to speak, part of our daily life. I refer to Flag Education and Safety Programs.

The major objective of the Flag Education program is to build patriotism in our youth and to develop a thorough understanding of proper Flag display and courtesy. We practice it at every Post meeting and it is surprising to note how closely visitors watch the Color bearers and their performance. I would like to go further into this subject but lack of space does not permit that, however, if you are interested in learning more, please drop me a note in care of Albany Times, giving your name and address and I will see to it that you get a copy of a pamphlet entitled "Let's Be Right on Flag Etiquette."

Here is something everyone can help with. Have you noticed how few Flags are displayed in this community on National holidays? May I suggest that you urge your friends and neighbors to purchase Flags and display them on National holidays.

The Safety Program is what the name implies. Specific measures that will reduce accidents are well known and when applied intelligently will reduce accidents. With the increased use of bicycles by older persons and youngsters, a Bicycle Safety Program might soon be needed.

The last article in this series will be published next Wednesday, March 7th.

Special Bulletin — We have just received word that the 2nd Area Oratorical Contest was held today (Feb. 25th) at Redwood City. Six contestants, three boys and three girls, participated. All did very well. The 10th District representative, Bob Nichols, placed fifth. Bob, you did very well but your competition was too tough. We thank you for participating. Better luck next time.

1000 San Pablo Ave. — Office Hours 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Yo-Yo Contest Date Set

It's Yo-Yo time again! The art of manipulating return tops becomes a serious business during February and March, as over 2,000 playgrounds and recreation centers throughout California begin first-round contests in the annual Duncan Yo-Yo Return Top competitions. It's serious business because skill in this art could lead to a $500 college scholarship.

Boys and girls under 16 years of age are eligible to compete. Each must learn to demonstrate skill in 10 basic Yo-Yo tricks: "The Spinner," "Walking the Dog," "The Creeper," "Around the Corner," "Skin the Cat," "Rocking the Baby," "Sleeping Beauty," "Three-Leaf Clover," "Loop the Loop," and "Man on the Flying Trapeze."

According to the Albany Parks and Recreation Department, preliminary training and first round contests will begin on all playgrounds and parks on March 9, 1973.

Winners in first-round contests will be eligible to compete in District or City Finals. Trophies and prizes will be awarded to local, district and city winners.

Flambeaus Plastics Corporation, makers of the famous Duncan Yo-Yo, announced that two $500 college scholarships will be awarded this year. One $500 scholarship will be awarded to the Grand Champion of Northern California and one to the Grand Champion of Southern California. Grand Championship competition will be held the first two Saturdays in May.

Activities include weekly trips to the library and local parks. Last session, children went for a ride on BART from Albany to Oakland, they were thrilled by this experience and so were their teachers. This session, we plan to visit the Berkeley Marina, weather permitting.

This month marked the beginning of Yo-Yo season, children in the Peter Pan Club will be given instruction with yo-yo's provided by the Recreation Department.

Martin Valli Claims Bride

Martin and Sherry Valli

Wedding ceremonies at the Lutheran Church of the Cross in Berkeley, united two former Albany High graduates, when Martin David Valli claimed Sherry Lynn Harlan as his bride last month.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clancy Harlan of Richmond, was given in marriage by her father. For the ceremony she wore a bridal gown of satin and angel skin plau. The satin bodice was enhanced with Venice lace trimmed with seed pearls, as was the soft flowing skirt. Her mantilla-like veil was also trimmed with Venice lace, and she carried a cascade of yellow roses and babies' breath.

A close friend of the bride, Miss Wendy Goman of Berkeley, was her maid of honor. Other bridal attendants included: Miss Linda Harlan and Miss Cindy Harlan, sisters of the bride, from Richmond; Miss Kathy McKenna of Albany; Miss Lolly Valli, sister of the groom, Albany; and Miss Shelley Montano, Richmond.

Flower girl was Miss Jenny Goman from Berkeley, and Miss Lorraine Lander of Albany circulated the guest book.

The bridesmaids wore light blue crepe gowns with empire waistlines and long lantern-shaped chiffon sleeves. The Maid of Honor's dress was the same style, but in royal blue. All carried Victorian bouquets of yellow roses, babies' breath, bachelor buttons and baby-blue pom-poms.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Valli of Albany, chose Tom Drennan of Albany for his best man. Serving as ushers were the groom's brother, Ted, and Andy Lennert, both from Richmond; and David Sannazzaro, Ray Gonzales and Daniel Berman, all from Albany.

The newlyweds received their guests at a reception held in Slav Hall in the town of San Pablo.

Following a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, the couple are now making their first home in Albany.
